FROM THE EDITOR

One of my original ideas for this magazine was to have other photographers, models, artists have their own work shown; not just only my work. I never knew if anyone would want to show their work in Amethyst; turns out they do. Its taken a long time to set that up, but with this issue, it finally has become reality. So, this will be the first issue of Amethyst Magazine with other artists' work.

The first editorial is by talented photographer, Matteo Sciarra, from Italy. "Sunrise in the Valley" is a shoot he did with model Rapy in Italy, where Matteo is from. It was shot on film with minimal editing in a beautiful location at, of course, sunset..

"Anonymous" is from a model named Jamie, that shoots herself, minus her face. She shoots very sexy shots, angles, etc. It took a while to get her to appear in this issue, but I think you'll agree it was worth it. Her anygles and posing is really unique and I just love all of her work.

"Home Life" is another editorial with our cover model, Lucy. She has appeared before and probably will again, as we create very well together. We shot this in her apartment, mostly with existing light.

This issue marks the return of Anonymous Nudes. I shot this a while ago and finally put it all together. The model thought it strange that I had her pose with the steer's head, but it looks pretty cool, I think. Hopefully you will too.

The issue is rounded out by the return of Amber, this time in an orange sweater and then not. She is another model that will appear again in the furture. I liked how the orange of the sweater and her hair color complimented each other.

I hope you'll enjoy this issue, and don't forget to check the website periodically for some new photos that will be website/subscriber only.

So relax, and enjoy this issue of Amethyst!
