FROM THE EDITOR

Issue#11, wow, almost at a full dozen issues. So happy and proud to have come this far, but much farther to go still. The website has been enhanced with a page for all the models that have appeared with their own pages and brief bios. Another enhancement to the website is the addition of videos. Its been a long time coming, but finally have videos, bts videos and soon, self videos of and from the models themselves. Always striving to make the subscriber experience the best possible.

First up in this issue, 'Shadows on the Beach', with several models and shot by photographer James Felix. Models on a beautifully lit beach and palm leaf shadows across their nude bodies. Very artistic and sexy in it's beauty.

Second up is 'Pool Side' with the return of our first cover model, Macy Chanel. Set in her former backyard pool on a beautiful sunny summer afternoon. A few sexy outfits, all wet including her hair. Luckily, her makeup didn't run when wet, as we were not planning to have her in the pool that day.

Next up are two articles. 'Sacred Sex Ed' by tantric expert, Leola and '4 Tips for Men in Bed. Two very interesting and informative articles and good reads.

'Beach House' with newcomer, Luci, is the next editorial. Although this appears to be outside by a house at the beach, it was actually shot in a studio with a sand covered floor. Keeping with the summer theme, it was over 90 degrees in the studio that day, lol.

'Island Beach' is next with newcomer, Ines on the beach and self shot. She is an amazing European model with a huge following. We are so thrilled to have her in our magazine and have plans to shoot with her in September.

This issue is rounded out with a new editorial of 'Anonymous Nudes'. Shot in my own apartment with a model visiting from London. We try to add to the Anonymous Nude editorials every chance we get.

I hope you'll enjoy this issue, and don't forget to check the website periodically for some new photos, videos and changes that will be website/subscriber only.

So relax, and enjoy this issue of Amethyst!

Sacred Sex Ed

By Leola

Like it or not, sexual energy is the fabric of our existence. It is the most powerful energy on the planet, and simultaneously the most often misunderstood, misconstrued, and miserably underrated.

Sex created me. It created you. It created everyone you know. Every human, plant, and animal on the Earth is the product of sex. Look around you now. Seriously. Turn your head the full 90 degrees left, and then 90 degrees right. I'll bet that nearly everything you see in your midst was either directly created by sex or was created by someone or something that resulted from a procreative act.

Tantra and shamanic sexuality recognize that there is a physical world and a spiritual world, and there is an energy that connects them: sexual energy.

Sex is literally why we're all here - is there anything more spiritual than that?

And yet, so many of us received a sexual education that is fear based, shame inducing, and not entirely honest. Traditional sexual education and the way society approaches sex can be inherently traumatizing.

I can almost guarantee you received a lot of mixed messages from parents, religion, school sex ed, peers, and especially pop culture and the media around what is deemed sexually acceptable. These form beliefs and shadows that are often so deeply rooted in our subconscious that we aren't aware we are allowing these limiting perspectives to rule our intimate lives.

And yet, it is with awareness that we are empowered to move beyond a victim mindset - to use these traumas as gateways into ourselves. I say all this to empower you. To show you where you may be limiting yourself unconsciously. The intention of these words is to set you free. You get to choose if the narratives of fear, limiting beliefs around sexuality, and judgmental stereotypes suit you. Or if there's something more expansive for your highest self - which, spoiler alert, there is.

Enter, Sacred Sex Ed: the sex education you almost certainly didn't have, but that we all desperately need; a sex education that is empowering, honest, and pleasure-based. It is the pathway to a future in which we feel empowered by our desires, rather than a slave to them; in which we feel celebratory of our nakedness and vulnerability. Sacred Sex Ed is creating a world where we can openly and emphatically talk about the energy and acts that brought us into it.

4 Tips for Men in Bed

Getting Vocal

You can ask your partner to touch you or pleasure you in certain ways. This can at first seem dull and too frank, but they are going to be delighted to do what you want, especially if you guide them through or give them details.

Whispering close to their ear will help in heating up the atmosphere. When whispering close to their ear, make sure they can feel the breath and moisture from your mouth. This can be even better if there is dirty talk. This is very effective when used as an anticipator.

Getting flirty and touchy

There are some subtle ways you can take when building sexual tension. Some of the things you can do are to caress the neck/ inside their arm/ palm using a finger in a back and forth movement, sit on their lap, slightly fuss your butt, stick your hand into their trouser into their front pocket like you want to grab the phone/keys, squeeze against them in a sensual manner, etc.

Then doing the above gestures, always make sure they come with a suggestive look to their eyes and smile. These can also be great anticipators when you are in public.

If you want to try something that will have immediate effects, try out escalating to physical contact when you are having a conversation or watching the movie. Doing this out of the blue can be very effective.

Just start at the back of their neck then run your hands down their shoulder, slide over their chest. Your fingers should then gently flow down their belly, and by the time you reach their dick, it will already be hard. Another option is setting a massage session then escalating to sensual touch.
